DESCRIPTION

The unique approach taken within The Ethics of Patriotism brings together the differing perspectives of three leading figures in the philosophical debate who deliver an up-to-date, accessible, and vigorous presentation of the major views and arguments.

- Brings together the differing perspectives of three leading philosophers, who, together, explore the major positions on the ethics of patriotism
- Connects with several burgeoning fields of interest in philosophy and politics, including nationalism, civic virtue, liberalism and republicanism, loyalty, and cosmopolitanism
- Demonstrates that it is possible to make progress on the question of the ethics of patriotism while taking an ecumenical approach to larger theoretical questions
- A timely and relevant response to the upsurge of interest in nationalism, patriotism, and secessions
