Men Talk: Stories in the Making of Masculinities
Jennifer Coates

Paperback  978-0-631-22046-6  December 2002  £38.00

DESCRIPTION

-Men Talk draws on rich conversational material from a wide range of contexts to illuminate our understanding of men and masculinities at the turn of the millennium.

- Draws on rich conversational material to illuminate our understanding of men and masculinities at the turn of the millennium.

- Collects data from a wide range of conversations, including garage mechanics on a break, carpenters at the pub after work, and university academics chatting after hours.

- Focuses on stories, which occur within all-male conversations.

- Makes a distinctive contribution to our understanding of the intersection of language and masculinity.
ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Jennifer Coates is Professor of English Language and Linguistics at the University of Surrey Roehampton. She is author of Women Talk (Blackwell, 1996) and editor of Language and Gender: A Reader (Blackwell, 1997).

FEATURES

• Draws on rich conversational material to illuminate our understanding of men and masculinities at the turn of the millennium.

• Collects data from a wide range of conversations, including garage mechanics on a break, carpenters at the pub after work, and university academics chatting after hours.

• Focuses on stories, which occur within all-male conversations.

• Makes a distinctive contribution to our understanding of the intersection of language and masculinity.

To purchase this product, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-gb/9780631220466