DESCRIPTION

This is an outstanding collection of essays which brings together for the first time the work of a group of writers well-known in the Marxist-feminist tradition. The essays range from Marx to Foucault and go beyond them to offer genuine advances in the way social and political life can be reconceptualized in the light of feminist critique.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Seyla Benhabib has authored Critique, Norm, and Utopia, and is Professor of Political Science and Philosophy at the New School for Social Research. She is author of FEATURES

1. Editors and contributors are very-well known in this area.
2. This is the first such collection of their writings.
3. The essays cover many mainstream political thinkers e.g. Marx, Foucault, Habermas.
4. The essays combine to reconstitute the terms of debate in critical theory from a feminist point of view.

SERIES

Feminist Perspectives

To purchase this product, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-gb/9780745603667