DESCRIPTION

Forensic Accounting and Fraud Examination provides a comprehensive introduction to fraud detection and deterrence for both students and professionals. The text follows the model curriculum for education in fraud and forensic accounting funded by the U.S. National Institute of Justice and developed by a Technical Working Group of experts in the field. Whether getting inside the mind of these criminals in “From the Fraudster’s Perspective,” or utilizing the included IDEA software for meeting documentation standards, this text offers real world practicality. This easy to read, comprehensive textbook includes essential learning pedagogies and engaging case study examples that bring technical concepts to life.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Mary-Jo Kranacher is a CPA and a certified fraud examiner. She is the Editor-in-Chief of The CPA Journal, the official publication of the New York State Society of CPAs. She is a tenured accounting professor and department chairman at York College of The City University of New York. Professor Kranacher was recently selected by the ACFE as the 2009 Educator of the Year for educating current and future CPAs about fraud detection and deterrence. She was a member of the planning panel that developed a model curriculum for fraud and forensic accounting education for the U.S. National Institute of Justice. Professor Kranacher has conducted forensic investigations related to asset misappropriation, fraudulent financial statements, expense reimbursement schemes, and others.
Richard Riley (CPA, CFE, CFF) is currently a Louis F. Tanner Distinguished Professor of Public Accounting at West Virginia University, the 2008 Association of Certified Fraud Examiners Educator of the Year and 2009 American Accounting Association Innovation in Accounting Education Award recipient. He has developed and implemented fraud and forensic accounting education programs for the United States National Institute of Justice and the Internal Revenue Service and is the Director of Research for the Institute for Fraud Prevention. Since 2002, Dr. Riley has performed expert financial analysis and litigation support services, offering deposition and trial testimony. He has two forthcoming books: Financial Statement Fraud: Prevention and Detection with Zabi Rezaee and Forensic Accounting and Fraud Examination textbook with Joseph Wells and Mary-Jo Kranacher. Dr. Riley possesses an undergraduate degree in accounting from Wheeling Jesuit University, a Masters of Professional Accountancy from West Virginia University and Doctor of Philosophy Degree from the University of Tennessee.

RELATED RESOURCES

Student
View Student Companion Site

Instructor
View Instructor Companion Site
Contact your Rep for all inquiries

NEW TO EDITION

Text foundation based upon National Institute of Justice’s (NIJ) Model Curriculum for Education in Fraud and Forensic Accounting

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us