DESCRIPTION

This book develops the communication and literacy skills of heritage Spanish speakers with exercises that are designed to improve oral and written proficiency in the language. Nuevos mundos uses the cultures and voices of the major Hispanic groups in the United States, as well as those of Latin America and Spain, to familiarize students with a variety of issues and topics, which are sometimes controversial and always thought-provoking.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Ana Roca Castro is a social entrepreneur and the CEO of PreK12 Plaza; The first multicultural education platform dedicated to closing the academic achievement gap among children of recent immigrants and at-risk students. She is also the founder of Latinos in Social Media #Latism, the largest organization of Latino professionals engaged in social media.

RELATED RESOURCES

Student

View Student Companion Site

Instructor

View Instructor Companion Site
NEW TO EDITION

• New readings and activities

• Updated opener essays and end-of-chapter resources

• New intergenerational individual and group projects

• Updated Apéndices

FEATURES

• High-interest topics serve as a springboard for discussion and writing assignments.

• The first four chapters emphasize U.S. Latino heritage, culture, and society-at-large, treating topics such as immigration, the Latinization of the United States, brief historical notes, and other topics to which students can easily relate.

• Numerous opportunities are available for individual and group work, and class participation

• Cultural awareness is promoted through community involvement, independent study, research projects, and Internet activities.

• Cooperative learning and a content-based approach help students learn more about the diversity of Hispanic cultures and improve their oral proficiency.

• A supplementary Unos pasos más: Fuentes y recursos section provides resources for additional reading and suggestions for feature and documentary films that can be used for individual and group projects related to chapter topics.

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us