A Dictionary of Philosophical Quotations
A. J. Ayer (Editor), Jane O'Grady (Editor)

Paperback ISBN: 978-0-631-19478-1 August 1994 $44.75

DESCRIPTION

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

A. J. Ayer was also Wykeham Professor of Logic at Oxford University. His many distinguished books include Language, Truth and Logic, The Problems of Knowledge, The Concept of a Person and Other Essays, and works on Bertrand Russell and Thomas Paine.

Jane O'Grady studied Philosophy at University College, London. After teaching for some years she worked as a literary journalist, columnist and short-story writer. She has published a book of short stories and articles entitled Obsessions.

FEATURES

* Quotations from over 300 of the leading figures in world philosophy.

* Selections chosen by distinguished collection of philosophers.

* Covers a wide range of the western philosophical tradition.
* The last major project embarked on by A. J. Ayer.

* An index to main philosophical schools, genres and ideas.

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us