DESCRIPTION

This book provides a concise survey of British politics in the postwar era. Now expanded in a new edition, the author extends his exploration of the theme of "consensus" through to the present day, and provides updated further reading.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

David Dutton is Senior Lecturer in History at the University of Liverpool and a Fellow of the Royal Historical Society. He is the author of Austen Chamberlain: Gentlemen in Politics (1985) and Anthony Eden: A Life and Reputation (1996).

FEATURES

* Provides concise, up-to-date overview of British political debate since 1945.

* Explores and extends discussion of "consensus politics".

* Offers analysis of most recent events in British politics, and the ways academics have interpreted them.

* Includes fully updated further reading.
SERIES

Historical Association Studies

To purchase this product, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us/9780631203209