DESCRIPTION

This outstanding volume offers students, teachers and general readers a complete introductory survey of the major non-western philosophical traditions.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Eliot Deutsch is past editor (1967-1987) of the international journal Philosophy East and West, Director of the Sixth East-West Philosophers' Conference, and a past president of the Society for Asian and Comparative Philosophy. He is the author of twelve books, including: On Truth; Personhood, Creativity and Freedom; Studies in Comparative Aesthetics; Religion and Spirituality; Essays on the Nature of Art; and many articles and reviews in professional journals.

Ron Bontekoe received his PhD from the University of Toronto. He is author of Dimensions of the Hermenetic Circle (1996) and co-editor of Justice and Democracy.

FEATURES

* Includes coverage of Chinese, Indian, Buddhist, Islamic, African, and Polynesian philosophical traditions.
* In addition to historical coverage, the volume includes coverage of the current trends and perspectives in non-western thought.

* Includes over 40 new articles by leading scholars.

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us