Norbert Elias

July 2000     Out of stock     $66.50

DESCRIPTION

The Civilizing Process stands out as Norbert Elias' greatest work, tracing the "civilizing" of manners and personality in Western Europe since the late Middle Ages by demonstrating how the formation of states and the monopolization of power within them changed Western society forever.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Norbert Elias (1897-1990) taught at the University of Frankfurt until his exile from Hitler's Germany. In Britain, he worked at the Universities of London and Leicester, and in retirement was visiting professor in Ghana, Amsterdam, Munster, Bielefeld and many other universities. By the time of his death he was recognized as one of the outstanding social scientists of the twentieth century. His previous Blackwell books include: The Norbert Elias Reader, The Court Society, The Loneliness of the Dying, Involvement and Detachment, Time: An Essay, The Society of Individuals and, with Eric Dunning, Quest for Excitement.

FEATURES

.
• Completely overhauled version of the combined classic texts The History of Manners and State Formation and Civilization.

• Revised throughout, updated postscript and bibliography, and line corrections made from the original version.

• Contents lists combined and restructured.

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us