DESCRIPTION

In recent years, nurses, midwives and health visitors have taken on increasing responsibilities, concurrently with the development of new legislation and a Code of Professional Conduct by the UKCC. This book describes in detail the important issues in these professions, accountability, standards of conduct, and the framework of the disciplinary process, with practical case-studies illustrating the disciplinary process in action.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

FEATURES

* incorporates 1997 policy objectives from International Council of Nurses * includes numerous case studies for individual study or group discussion * a valuable resource for all involved in professional regulation * an essential handbook for all health care students and practitioners To purchase this product, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us/9780632040865