DESCRIPTION

This is the first book to integrate all aspects of workplace risk assessment and management, now the overriding emphasis in occupational health.

Topics include: basic concepts and developments; toxic hazards; hazard characteristics and identification; setting standards; requirements of monitoring workplace exposure; contaminants; exposure modeling; risk perception and management; prevention and control; economics; emergency response; health surveillance; auditing; compliance; pesticides, chemicals, carcinogens, biological agents, and radiation; equipment screening; manual handling; stress; and workplace violence.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Steven Sadhra is a Reader and lead for Occupational Health - OH - within the College of Medical and Dental Sciences - MDS. He is the programme lead for the MSc in Occupational Health and Continuous Professional Development - CPD - professional courses in OH, which are recognised by various professional bodies including the Faculty of Occupational Medicine - FOM.
FEATURES

* first book to integrate all aspects of workplace risk assessment * risk assessment is now the overriding central emphasis in occupational health *
  makes use of practical case studies

To purchase this product, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us/9780632041992