DESCRIPTION

This is a comprehensive and accessible account of the nature of nationalism, which has re-emerged as one of the fundamental forces shaping world society today.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Montserrat Guibernau is a Research Fellow at the Centre for Research in Ethnic Relations, University of Warwick.

FEATURES

Provides a comprehensive yet accessible account of one of the most important issues now facing political analysis.

* Incorporates a systematic discussion of major themes of nationalism.

* Focuses upon a neglected issue: the issue of "nations without states which exist without a formal territory of appenditure of government".
