In this new collection of lectures and essays Jurgen Habermas engages with a wide range of figures in twentieth-century thought. The book displays once again his ability to capture the essence of a thinker’s work, his feeling for the texture of intellectual traditions and his outstanding powers of critical assessment.

Habermas has described these essays as ‘fragments of a history of contemporary philosophy’. The volume includes explorations of the work of Ernst Cassirer, Karl Jaspers and Gershom Scholem, as well as responses to friends and colleagues such as Michael Thuenissen, Karl-Otto Apel and the writer and film-maker Alexander Kluge. It also includes pieces on the Finnish philosopher Georg Henrik von Wright and the theologian Johann Baptist Metz.

This new volume will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of Habermas and twentieth-century philosophy.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Jürgen Habermas is Professor of Philosophy Emeritus at the Johann Wolfgang Goethe University of Frankfurt.
FEATURES

1. A new collection of philosophical essays by one of the world's leading social and political thinkers.

2. Explores the work of important figures in twentieth-century philosophy and theology, such as Karl Jaspers and Gershom Scholem

3. An invaluable resource for students and scholars of contemporary philosophy and theology.

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us