

Nonprofit Boards and Leadership: Cases on Governance, Change, and Board-Staff Dynamics

Miriam M. Wood

Hardcover

978-0-787-90139-4

November 1995

$50.95

DESCRIPTION

Offers detailed case studies that demonstrate the crucial strategic issues facing nonprofit governing boards and offers board members new methods for dealing with them.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

MIRIAM M. WOOD is an associate of the Yale Program on Non-profit Organizations at Yale University and serves on the board of a number of nonprofit organizations. Wood is the recipient of the 1994 Drucker Prize for Best Article in Nonprofit Management and Leadership.

SERIES

J-B US non-Franchise Leadership