DESCRIPTION

Based on the fifth edition of Kaplin and Lee's indispensable guide to the law that bears on the conduct of higher education, The Law of Higher Education, Fifth Edition: Student Version provides an up-to-date textbook, reference, and guide for coursework in higher education law and programs preparing higher education administrators for leadership roles.

The Student Version includes the materials from the full fifth edition that most relate to student interests and are most suitable for classroom instruction.

For example:

• The evolution of higher education law and governance

• Legal planning and dispute resolution

• The relationship between law and policy

• Faculty and staff employment issues, including collective bargaining

• Academic freedom for faculty and students

• Copyright basics

• The contract rights of students
• Legal issues in online education

• The rights of students and faculty with disabilities

• Campus issues: safety, registered sex offenders, racial and sexual harassment, student suicide, campus computer networks, searches of students’ residence hall rooms

• Hate speech and freedom of speech, including the rights of faculty and students in public universities

• Student organizations’ rights, responsibilities, and activities fees

• Governmental support for religious institutions and religious autonomy rights of individuals in public institutions

• Nondiscrimination and affirmative action in employment, admissions, and financial aid

• Athletics and Title IX

• FERPA (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act)

Each chapter is introduced with an overview of key terms and ideas the students will encounter. In addition, the book includes a general introduction to the study of higher education law, a glossary of key legal terms, and appendices for non-law students on the American court system and on how to read court opinions.

The authors have also prepared a volume of teaching materials keyed to the Student Version, available from the National Association of College and University Attorneys (NACUA). In addition, the authors will periodically update the Student Version by posting recent developments on a Web site hosted by NACUA.

🔥 ABOUT THE AUTHOR

WILLIAM A. KAPLIN is professor of law emeritus at The Catholic University of America, Washington, DC, where he also served as special counsel to the Office of General Counsel. He is now senior fellow at the Center for Excellence in Higher Education Law and Policy, Stetson University College of Law.

BARBARA A. LEE is professor of human resource management at Rutgers University’s School of Management and Labor Relations and of counsel to the law firm of Edwards Wildman Palmer. An attorney, she teaches employment law and higher education law.
Together they are the authors of The Law of Higher Education, now in its fifth edition, and A Legal Guide for Student Affairs Professionals.

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us