DESCRIPTION

A comprehensive volume that offers the most current thinking on the practice and theory of engagement

With contributions from an international panel of leaders representing diverse academic and professional fields, The Handbook of Communication Engagement brings together in one volume writings on both the theory and practice of engagement in today's organizations and societies. The expert contributors explore the philosophical, theoretical, and applied concepts of communication engagement as it pertains to building interaction and connections in a globalized, networked society.

The Handbook of Communication Engagement is comprehensive in scope with case studies of engagement from various disciplines including public relations, marketing, advertising, employee relations, education, public diplomacy, and politics. The authors advance the current thinking in engagement theory, strategy, and practice and provide a review of foundational and emerging research in engagement topics. The Handbook of Communication Engagement is an important text that:

• Provides an overview of the foundations and philosophies of engagement

• Identifies the contexts of engagement relating to specific areas across government and corporations, including CSR, consumer, activism, diplomacy, digital, and social impact

• Includes examples of contemporary engagement practice

• Presents applications of engagement and technology
• Offers insights on the future directions of engagement

The Handbook of Communication Engagement offers an essential reference for advanced undergraduate, graduate students, practitioners and scholars from communication, media, advertising, public relations, public policy, and public diplomacy areas. The volume contains a compendium of the writings on the most recent advances on the theory and practice of engagement. Winner of the 2018 PRIDE Award for Innovation, Development, and Educational Achievement from the Public Relations Division of the National Communication Association.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Kim A. Johnston, PhD, is a senior lecturer at QUT Business School and leads the stakeholder engagement research group. She consults widely with private and public organizations and undertakes research in community engagement, social change and social impact.

Maureen Taylor, PhD, is Professor and Director of the School of Advertising and Public Relations at the University of Tennessee. Taylor's research has focused on nation building and civil society, dialogue, engagement and new technologies.

SERIES

Handbooks in Communication and Media

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us