Produced in association with the Journal of Common Market Studies (JCMS), the Annual Review covers the major developments in the European Union in the past year.

- Contains specially commissioned articles and keynote contributions written by leading experts in their respective fields covering a wide array of political, economic and legal issues

- This year’s Annual Review includes specially commissioned contributions by John Curtice on the UK’s referendum to leave the EU, Catherine de Vries’s analysis of the impact of the Brexit vote on public opinion in the other member states and Helen Wallace’s JCMS Annual Review lecture ‘In the Name of Europe’

- The most up-to-date and authoritative source of information for those engaged in teaching and research or who are simply interested in the European Union

SERIES

Journal of Common Market Studies