The Wiley Blackwell Handbook of Humanism
Andrew Copson (Editor), A. C. Grayling (Editor)

DESCRIPTION

The Wiley Blackwell Handbook of Humanism presents an edited collection of essays that explore the nature of Humanism as an approach to life, and a philosophical analysis of the key humanist propositions from naturalism and science to morality and meaning.

• Represents the first book of its kind to look at Humanism not just in terms of its theoretical underpinnings, but also its consequences and its diverse manifestations

• Features contributions from international and emerging scholars, plus renowned figures such as Stephen Law, Charles Freeman and Jeananne Fowler

• Presents Humanism as a positive alternative to theism

• Brings together the world’s leading Humanist academics in one reference work

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Andrew Copson is Chief Executive of the British Humanist Association, Vice President of the International Humanist and Ethical Union, and a former director of the European Humanist Federation.
A. C. Grayling is Professor of Philosophy and Master of the New College of the Humanities, London, and a Supernumerary Fellow of St Anne's College Oxford.

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us