DESCRIPTION

This anthology presents classic and recent scholarship on Italian art from 1600-1750, highlighting the key debates with which art historians continue to grapple.

- Explores themes including: style or the visuality of art; artistic practices and production; artistic communication as projected and experienced; and artists' interactions with the ancient world and with the new sciences
- Examines the work of key painters, architects and sculptors from this period, including Caravaggio, Bernini, Guarini and Poussin
- Published in the expanding Blackwell Anthologies in Art History series

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Susan M. Dixon is Associate Professor of Art History at University of Tulsa, Oklahoma.
• Brings together important classic and recent secondary literature on the art of Italy, c. 1600-1780

• Examines many of the major artistic themes and issues that scholars in the field continue to grapple with, and that characterize this especially rich, if turbulent, period in the development of art history

• Explores themes including: style or the visuality of art; artistic practices and production; artistic communication as projected and experienced; and artists’ interactions with the ancient world and with the new sciences

• Examines the work of key painters, architects and sculptors from this period, including Caravaggio, Bernini, Guarini and Poussin

• Published in the expanding Blackwell Anthologies in Art History series

---

SERIES

Blackwell Anthologies in Art History

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us