DESCRIPTION

This book is the first to focus on war and peace in the ancient world from a global perspective.

• The first book to focus on war and peace in the ancient world

• Takes a global perspective, covering a large number of early civilizations, from China, India and West Asia, through the Mediterranean to the Americas

• Features contributions from nineteen distinguished scholars, all of whom are experts in their fields

• Offers remarkable insights into the different ways in which ancient societies dealt with a common human challenge

• Requires no prior historical knowledge, making it suitable for non-specialists
ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Kurt A. Raaflaub is David Herlihy University Professor and Professor of Classics and History at Brown University.

FEATURES

• The first book to focus on war and peace in the ancient world.

• Takes a global perspective, covering a large number of early civilizations, from China, India and West Asia, through the Mediterranean to the Americas.

• Features contributions from nineteen distinguished scholars, all of whom are experts in their fields.

• Offers remarkable insights into the different ways in which ancient societies dealt with a common human challenge.

• Requires no prior historical knowledge, making it suitable for non-specialists.

SERIES

Ancient World: Comparative Histories

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us