DESCRIPTION

This innovative book breaks new ground in visual studies with its specific exploration of the visual dimensions of gender.

- Explores visual genders through material ranging from documentary film footage of liberated concentration camps after World War II to contemporary fashion photography in Tehran.

- Chapters are organised conceptually under themes of documenting, trafficking and experimenting.

- A diverse selection of exceptional and provocative images accompanies the text.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

FEATURES

• An innovative collection of essays exploring the visual dimensions of gender.

• Breaks new ground by foregrounding gender in visual studies.

• Explores visual genders through material ranging from documentary film footage of liberated concentration camps after World War II to contemporary fashion photography in Tehran.

• Chapters are organised conceptually under themes of documenting, trafficking and experimenting.

• A diverse selection of exceptional and provocative images accompanies the text.

SERIES

Gender and History Special Issues

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us