WRITING: THEORY AND HISTORY OF THE TECHNOLOGY OF CIVILIZATION

Barry B. Powell

DESCRIPTION

Writing: Theory and History of the Technology of Civilization traces the origins of writing tied to speech from ancient Sumer through the Greek alphabet and beyond.

• Examines the earliest evidence for writing in Mesopotamia in the fourth millennium BC, the origins of purely phonographic systems, and the mystery of alphabetic writing

• Includes discussions of Ancient Egyptian, Chinese, and Mayan writing

• Shows how the structures of writing served and do serve social needs and in turn create patterns of social behavior

• Clarifies the argument with many illustrations
