DESCRIPTION

In a series of newly commissioned essays by both established and emerging scholars, Globalization and Contemporary Art probes the effects of internationalist culture and politics on art across a variety of media. Globalization and Contemporary Art is the first anthology to consider the role and impact of art and artist in an increasingly borderless world.

• First major anthology of essays concerned with the impact of globalization on contemporary art

• Extensive bibliography and a full index designed to enable the reader to broaden knowledge of art and its relationship to globalization

• Unique analysis of the contemporary art market and its operation in a globalized economy
