This anthology is the first study of the philosophy of narrative in the analytic tradition.

- Brings together eleven articles exploring narrative, metaphysics and epistemology, character, and emotion
- Examines various narrative art forms, including painting and comics
- The first of a new series of books published in association with the Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Noël Carroll is a Distinguished Professor in the Graduate Center of the City University of New York.
First anthology on the philosophy of narrative in the analytic tradition

SERIES

Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us