The JCMS Annual Review of the European Union in 2010
Nathaniel Copsey (Editor), Tim Haughton (Editor)

DESCRIPTION

• Contains analytical articles and keynote contributions written by leading experts in their respective fields covering political, economic and legal issues

• Includes the JCMS Annual Review Lecture, by Loukas Tsoukalis

• Includes State of the Union article by President of the European Parliament, Jerzy Buzek

• The most up-to-date and authoritative source of information for those engaged in teaching and research or who are simply interested in the European Union
Specially commissioned articles by David Marsh on the turbulence in the eurozone and William E. Paterson on Germany as the 'reluctant hegemon' in the European Union.

Includes an invaluable guide to EU documents and publications - and the various websites of the EU - together with a chronology of key events.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Nathaniel Copsey is Senior Lecturer in Politics at Aston University, UK.

Tim Haughton is Senior Lecturer in the Politics of Central and Eastern Europe at the University of Birmingham, UK.

SERIES

Journal of Common Market Studies

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us