Schools for the 21st Century: Leadership Imperatives for Educational Reform
Phillip C. Schlechty

DESCRIPTION

"Schlechty's common-sense approach to restructuring is combined with a strategic planner's vision and the translation of beliefs into action... A wide audience, including principals and superintendents, can find in this book practical outlines for restructuring, and a distinctive and focused view of their role in the educational system of the twenty-first century."

--The School Administrator

Schlechty provides an innovative, adaptable framework for helping leaders in all areas of education to identify where change is needed in order to make schools more useful and responsive to children and society.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

PHILLIP C. SCHLECHTY is president and CEO of the Center for Leadership in School Reform and author of Schools for the 21st Century. He is the creator of some of the most innovative professional development programs for educators as well as the designer of organizations to support the reinvention of our schools.

For additional product details, please visit https://www.wiley.com/en-us