DESCRIPTION

This book is based on contributions around the idea of the sublime and its presence, avoidance or use in contemporary psychotherapeutic practice. It is a reply to the yearnings of the people of our time for an acknowledgement and an honouring of the transpersonal, the beautiful, the soul-full and the foundations of perennial wisdom.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Professor Petruska Clarkson is affiliated to PHYSIS in London. She is world-renowned for her work in the psychotherapy field.

SERIES

Exc Business And Economy (Whurr)