Australasian Journal on Ageing
AJA COVER PHOTOGRAPH COMPETITION 2010
ENTRIES NOW OPEN!

The competition calls for photographs under four themes:
1. Ageing in rural areas
2. Healthy ageing in the community
3. Intergenerational exchange
4. Caring for the ageing population

Photographs will be reviewed by a panel of judges and four winners will be selected, one from each theme.

The prize for each theme will be a framed copy of the winning cover photo as an AJA cover, and $100.

Submissions deadline: Friday the 17th of September 2010

For more information including image format and entry forms please read the news section at: www.blackwellpublishing.com/AJA

Awards will be announced in March 2011 issue, and first photos used as cover photos.

Please forward your submission to our Editorial Office: sgoodwin@wiley.com

The journal will reserve the right to publish all other submitted photos as journal covers. The provenance of all published submitted photographs will be detailed on the inside front cover (or inside back cover) of the journal, and the photographer will receive a copy of the published journal with their photo as cover.
